

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

★ ★ ★ ★

HOLLANDERS MAKE PILGRIMAGE TO CANADIAN GRAVES AT NIMEGAM—Holland remembered Canada's dead as thousands of Dutch men, women and children made pilgrimages on VE-Day to Nimega cemetery, where 5,000 Canadians are buried. "Canadians buried here are the ones who paid the full price for our freedom," said Baron Boelacker, Netherlands foreign minister. Children are seen bringing flowers.

HEAD-ON TRANSPORT-CAR COLLISION TAKES LIVES—Three at the roadside. The wrecked car is seen (right). Almost Brady, 40, 33 Brooklyn persons were killed and three injured when their car was in collision with a transport near Prescott. Dotted line indicates car's course. X marking point of impact, with both the auto and transport tractor ending.

at the roadside. The wrecked car is seen (right). Almost Brady, 40, 33 Brooklyn persons were killed and three injured when their car was in collision with a transport near Prescott. Dotted line indicates car's course. X marking point of impact, with both the auto and transport tractor ending.

FOR THIS HE GETS 4,000 MARKS—Walking rope 250 feet above Main river, Frankfurt, Germany, is way Chris has chosen to make a living. He earns 4,000 marks a month. Nearly 2,000 for taxes.

PLASTIC GLOBE EXHIBITED BY BRITISH—Plastic globe is an exhibit at the British Industries Fair, which opened its doors at both London and Birmingham. Thousands of prospective buyers attend show.

BRANTFORD QUEEN—Queen of the May at Brantford is Marilyn Kitcher, 18, shown here, who was chosen by the Brantford chapters of the Boys' H-V and acclaimed by more than a thousand of her fellow students at the college. Her maids of honor are Mary Waldron and Lita Longfield.

ROY, 5, SAVES LIFE OF GIRL, 9—Acting with coolness and speed five-year-old Johnny Rapt saved the life of Lisa Leduc, three, when his little playmate fell face downward in a swamp and lost consciousness. Johnny dragged her to the edge of the swamp, and finding that he could not lift her and set her in a position where her head was above water, then ran for help. Johnny points to the spot where he dragged the unconscious youngster.

ONIONS AND ONIONS—Here is an onion patch on Andrew Rasmussen's farm at Carleton Place, Ont. They planted 30 pounds of Evensen sets and harvested 24 bushels; from 6 pounds of multiplier onions planted, they harvested 8 bushels. Shown in the patch are Mr. Rasmussen's daughters, resting after pulling the onions.

Champion of the Glamour class at the Horse Show, Calgary, Silver King, owned and ridden by Mrs. W. S. Barron.

Champion of the jumping class, at the Calgary Horse Show, Bounding Butler, owned by Lita-Good Haskins-Stratton, shown with Mrs. L. W. Haskins (right).

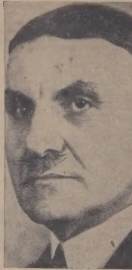

PARTY FAVORS ANTHONY EDEN AS SUCCESSOR TO CHURCHILL—Despite ill health of Anthony Eden, mentioned as a successor to Winston Churchill as British Conservative leader, the party now examining qualifications of other members, may decide to use Eden, shown as he admires a Pekingese dog, the only one awarded the title "Frogman" of London.

MONTREAL SELECTS QUEEN FOR CITY'S TIDY-UP CAMPAIGN—Beautification queen for Montreal during the city's clean-up campaign is 16-year-old Michelle Wullimier, (center), shown with Elizabeth Moudin, (left), who was second, and Pierrette Martel, (right), third in the voting. Michelle, daughter of a Swiss watchmaker, is a typist by day and art student at night.

DARING ROBBERY NETS JEWELRY AND CASH—Armed thugs beat up Mrs. Levan Babayan and escaped from her York Mills, Ont., residence, with diamond ring and $1,000 in cash. Mr. Levan Babayan, Toronto business man, hid his wallet containing $100 under his bed.

ANGELICAN SYNOD CHOOSES NEW BISHOP—Rt. Rev. Allan Ray Beverley, M.A., D.D., was elected by the Anglican synod to succeed the late Most Rev. D. T. Owen as archbishop of Toronto. He is the sixth bishop of Toronto. The election synod had 814 delegates who gave Bishop Beverley an overwhelming vote. Mrs. Beverley, (left), and Bishop Beverley are shown as they heard the results of the election.

HE GOES THROUGH THE AIR—with Ferdinand, the bull, after him. The man bounding against the wall, Ferdinand Luis Bryant, looks as though he is having naughty words. If he is, he really has a good reason, for Ferdinand has just tossed him out of the bullring at Arles, France, finishing up a bull fight in which Ferdinand definitely established his superior ability.

SEAL HUNTING—This photo was taken in Leading Tickle, Nfld., by Mr. Mark G. Rowell. This seal weighs about 1,000 pounds. "Seal hunting is one of our best sports at this time of year, as seals come in on the ice," states Mr. Rowell. The seal was killed by Mr. Henry Farnon and his two sons. The smaller seal in the picture is considered the smallest kind of seal.

